

Absalom Jones Celebration

Saturday, February 10, 2018 - 10:30 AM

Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, Greensboro

Sponsored by The Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina

- A Service of Holy Communion to commemorate The Reverend Absalom Jones (November 7, 1746 – February 13, 1818), first African-American priest in The Episcopal Church, ordained 1802. | Festive reception to follow.
- Celebrant: The Rt. Rev. Anne Hodges-Copple, Bishop Suffragan (Episcopal); Preacher: The Rev. Walter B.A. Brownridge, Diocese of Maryland & Former Dean of the Cathedral of St. Andrew, Honolulu, Hawaii; Assisting: The Rev. Dr. Alicia Alexis, Rector, Episcopal Church of the Redeemer; The Rev. Alphonso E. McGlen, Senior Pastor, Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church; Musicians: Church of the Redeemer Choir & Bethel A.M.E. Choir.
- Offerings will benefit two Episcopal Historically Black Colleges & Universities: St. Augustine's University, Raleigh, N.C. & Voorhees College, Denmark, S.C.

Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, a parish of the Diocese of North Carolina
901 East Friendly Avenue, Greensboro, North Carolina 27401 | 336.275.0033