Ministries at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Cary, NC

HOSPITALITY, PARISH LIFE, AND PASTORAL CARE

Vestry Liaisons:

Andrea Johnson jang7e@gmail.com

Carrie Hess carriekeesey@gmail.com

CARE AND SHARE: An in-reach ministry where members of St. Paul's respond to the immediate short-term needs of members within our parish. Example: food, transportation, visiting...

Nicole Griffin

nicole.griffin@gmail.com

Sara Concini

sara.concini@gmail.com

MEMORIAL GARDEN: This committee maintains and manages the Memorial Garden, which is a place for the interment of ashes in simple dignity and in surroundings that proclaim our resurrection faith.

Jackie Straub

jmpstraub@aol.com

MEN'S GROUP: A group that fosters fellowship for St. Paul's adult males to accomplish various service projects better as a group or as individual members of the church.

Rick Bradley

rbradley@email.unc.edu

NEWCOMER MINISTRY: Assist in welcoming visitors to St. Paul's, and host an annual event for newcomers.

Frank Laney

frankclaney@gmail.com

Anne Laney

annewlaney@gmail.com

CONNECTING MINISTRY: Welcome all to worship services and gatherings; assist with hospitality, especially for visitors. Work with ministry leaders to create pathways for new members to join.

Mary Kintz

mary.kintz@stpaulscary.org

BREAD MINISTRY: Bakes and delivers bread to newcomers on their first Sunday at St. Paul's.

Sally Moller

sbm2@nc.rr.com

PRAYER STITCHERS: Knitters and crocheters meet on Wednesday mornings to pray and make items for hospitals, shut-ins, homeless and other special needs. Instruction and materials are available for newcomers to knitting and crocheting and those who want to increase their skills.

Janet Morgan

jmorgan618@yahoo.com

RAINBOW GATHERING: This is a fellowship and support group for LGBTQ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Questioning) individuals and their allies.

Andrea Johnson

jang7e@gmail.com

USHERS: Greet people at church on Sunday mornings, hand out service bulletins, collect the offering, and assist the congregation at Communion time. Ushers help newcomers and visitors form a positive first impression of the church.

Ann Lockhart

annlockhart1@gmail.com

VISITING EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS: Assist the clergy by administering communion to our homebound or hospitalized members.

The Rev. Candy Snively

Candy.Snively@att.net

EDUCATIONAL AND SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT

Vestry Liaisons

Carrie Hess carriekeesey@gmail.com

Allison Moon allibauburn@gmail.com

ADULT FORMATION COMMITTEE: Provides resources and support to encourage faith formation in adults.

Rev. Javier Almendárez-Bautista

919-467-1477, ext. 12

Javier@stpaulscary.org

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY: The children's ministry supports the spiritual and educational needs of children ages three through fifth grade. We offer Children's Chapel at the 9:00 and 11:15 a.m. services each week and Sunday School during the traditional school calendar. We also offer special events throughout the year which include the Christmas Pageant, a Halloween pumpkin carving, an Easter egg hunt, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday programs, teacher appreciation events, and Vacation Bible Camp.

VACATION BIBLE CAMP: Each summer, usually during July, a week long, half-day Vacation Bible Camp is held for children ages three through 5th grade.

Sherri Hubbard

vbc@stpaulscary.org

CURSILLO: A weekend retreat, which is a short course in Christian living. There are also monthly Cursillo gatherings on the 1st Sunday of each month.

Rev. Candy Snively

Candy.Snively@att.net

DAYTIME BOOK GROUP: This group is open to those who are interested in reading and discussing literature. They alternate reading fiction and non-fiction each month. Many, but not all, of the selections have spiritual/religious themes. The group meets on the second Tuesday of each month from 12:00 noon to 1:30 p.m.

Joyce Loughlin

loughlin1@mindspring.com

YOUTH MINISTRY: There are many educational, spiritual, service and fellowship programs and activities for youth (grades 6-12) throughout the year. Youth can best support the program by actively participating in Sunday evening EYC (Episcopal Youth Community) meetings, Sunday morning classes for middle and high school students, and mission and outreach projects. Youth are also encouraged to be leaders within the parish community by serving on the Youth Council, by assisting teachers in the church school, and by participating in worship as lectors, acolytes, and as leaders of Children's Chapel.

Adults can support the youth program as Youth Advisors for any of the above activities, as parents (and non-parents) who chaperone, provide dinner or coordinate special events, and as liaisons between particular ministries and the youth community.

Youth Ministry at St. Paul's is supported by the Youth Ministry Committee, the Youth Coordinator, and the Minister for Children, Youth, and Family Formation

OUTREACH*Vestry Liaisons:Colette Hibberd hibberdfamily@yahoo.comBrad Hirschy brad.hirschy@gmail.comKaren Smith karensmith111@gmail.com*

OUTREACH SUPPORT TEAM: The Outreach Support Team promotes parish activities that offer care to those in need outside of the St. Paul's community. The OST coordinates communication about outreach efforts and opportunities, helps build the relationship between outreach ministries and the vestry, promotes a social justice framework through adult education offerings, assists in the creation of new outreach ministries, and provides other support to outreach ministries as needed.

Kim McCombs-Thorntonmccombs_k@yahoo.com

APPALACHIA SERVICE PROJECT (ASP) AT ST. PAUL'S: Home repair ministry to needy families of Central Appalachia; involves planning and support for a week-long mission trip. Youth and adult participants grow spiritually, gain self confidence, and bridge communities in the fresh mountain air while repairing roofs, floors and bathrooms, in addition to making homes accessible through porch and ramp repairs or additions.

Kevin Swannasp@stpaulscary.org

DORCAS MINISTRIES AT ST. PAUL'S: This Cary-based organization addresses its mission of Christian Community In Action through crisis relief to area residents who seek stability and self-sufficiency through food and financial assistance, scholarships, training programs, referrals, and an affordable thrift shop. St. Paul's collects items for distribution during various seasons, and many parishioners find fellowship as volunteers at both the Food Pantry and the Thrift Shop.

Open

EPISCOPAL CAMPUS MINISTRY AT ST. PAUL'S: Once a month during the school year, St. Paul's provides a home-cooked meal for the Episcopal Campus Ministry (ECM) at NC State.

Stephanie Hirschyshirschy@yahoo.com

EPISCOPAL FARMWORKER MINISTRY AT ST. PAUL'S: This ministry, located in Dunn, NC, is a joint effort of the Diocese of North Carolina and the Diocese of Eastern Carolina. St. Paul's hosts an annual Hermano ("Brother") Day to recognize the contributions of these workers and to collect money and supplies to support the outreach to farmworkers.

Katie Briciokatiebricio13@gmail.com

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY AT ST. PAUL'S: St. Paul's participates in a coalition of churches known as the Episcopal Build and provides volunteers to work with this nonprofit organization to help families build and improve places to call home.

Kevin McIntirekvn.mcintire@gmail.com

HEIFER INTERNATIONAL AT ST. PAUL'S: This international organization seeks to end hunger and poverty in a sustainable way by supporting and investing alongside local farmers and their communities. St. Paul's celebrates the special times and people in our lives each Sunday as we contribute to the Heifer Ark.

Alison Arnoldalisonearnold@gmail.com

KAIROS AT ST. PAUL'S: Through this international prison ministry, trained volunteers build relationships with incarcerated men and women during weekend spiritual retreat programs. St. Paul's supports Kairos by volunteering to work on teams, baking cookies, and creating handmade greeting cards for the participants.

Dave Moon

williamdmoon@gmail.com

ONE WAKE AT ST. PAUL'S: St. Paul's is a founding member and participates with a collaborative group of 46 faith-based and non-profit institutions from across Wake County, addressing various community issues though policy change and advocacy. Issues include affordable housing, education, transportation access and community mental health initiatives.

Mary Kintz

onewake@stpaulscary.org

Christina Myers

chmyers5@gmail.com

REFUGE FOR REFUGEES: St. Paul's Refuge for Refugee Ministry strives to live into Jesus' command to "love your neighbor as yourself" by welcoming refugees to our community and walking with them in their journey to self-sufficiency. R4R volunteers help refugees by donating and collecting items for their new apartment, welcoming them at the airport, helping them settle into their apartment, providing transportation, teaching English, and mentoring about financial literacy, health, and the US health system, completing documents, schools, jobs, shopping, household maintenance, and neighborhood life. Volunteers also assist with the ministry's administration and outreach.

Debra Richard

refugeforrefugees@stpaulscary.org

Ann Lockhart

ST. NICHOLAS MINISTRY: Each December, parishioners reach out to support families by contributing hundreds of Christmas gifts for distribution via state and local organizations. Gifts have been provided for families identified by CommWell Health (formerly the Tri-County Community Health Center), Healing Transitions, and Episcopal Housing Ministry participants.

Colette Hibberd

hibberdfamily@yahoo.com

WHEELS4HOPE AT ST. PAUL'S: Wheels4Hope is a non-profit, faith-based car donation program that turns donated cars into local blessings throughout the Triangle and Triad areas of North Carolina. St. Paul's members donate vehicles and volunteer to repair and rehab the donated cars. Recently, a refugee family supported by St. Paul's refugee ministry were the fortunate recipients on a Wheel4Hope car. With that vehicle, the family was able to get to jobs and doctor's appointments. It helped them become self-supporting members of our community.
