André Anthony

André Anthony is the son of Nigerian immigrants. Born in Newark, New Jersey, he spent eight years living in three different countries in Africa as a child. He has been a nonprofit professional for the last 22 years. He began his career as a youth sports instructor and camp counselor and spent over 18 years working for the YMCA in various roles across the country, most recently as Chief of Staff and Vice President of Organizational Advancement & Strategy at the YMCA of Central New York. André also worked for the Boys and Girls Clubs of the Twin Cities and served in a number of roles nationally and internationally with the YMCA.

André and his family relocated to the Triangle in February 2021 when he took on the role of Executive Director of the North Carolina Global Health Alliance. He also serves as an Advisory Board Member and on the Finance Committee of the YMCA of the Triangle (as well as other committees and task forces). In October 2022, André began his new role as the CEO of Dorcas Ministries, now merged with Western Wake Crisis Ministry under his leadership to become NeighborUp. He also serves on the boards of the Vaccine Ambassadors, Wake County Smart Start, and the Cary Chamber of Commerce, as well as the Community Advisory Council for Wake County Health and Human Services. André is very passionate about organizational strategy, mission advancement and developing people.

André is a husband to his lovely wife, Maya, and a dad to his beautiful three-year-old baby girl, Alaya (uh-lay-ah).
