The Hymnal 1982 #490
Houston

Exodus 33:12-23

Moses said to the LORD, "See, you have said to me, 'Bring up this people'; but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.' Now if I have found favor in your sight, show me your ways, so that I may know you and find favor in your sight. Consider too that this nation is your people." He said, "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest." And he said to him, "If your presence will not go, do not carry us up from here. For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us? In this way, we shall be distinct, I and your people, from every people on the face of the earth."

Reader People The Word of the Lord.

The Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 1:1-10

A Reading from the First Letter to the Thessalonians.

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace.

We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead-- Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

The Gradual Hymn

"Alleluia, alleluia! Give thanks to the risen Lord" (v.4)

The Hymnal 1982 #178

Alleluia No. 1

The Gospel

Matthew 22:15-22

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?" But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, "Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the tax." And they brought him a denarius. Then he said to them, "Whose head is this, and whose title?" They answered, "The emperor's." Then he said to them, "Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor's, and to God the things that are God's." When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

Gospeller The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

People remain standing until the homilist invites all to be seated.

The Homily

A moment of silence follows the homily.

The Rev. Dr. James Weldon, Jr.

Please stand as you are able.

The Nicene Creed

BCP 358

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Form IV (adapted)

BCP 388

People's Response: Hear our prayer.

Confession & Absolution of Sin

BCP 360

The Deacon or Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please kneel or stand as you are able. The Celebrant and People say

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Celebrant stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

BCP 360

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Please be seated.

Welcome, Announcements, & Offertory Sentence

If you would like to donate online, follow the QR code found here or on the giving card in the back of the pews. At the end of the announcements, you are also welcome to come forward to make a special donation to Heifer International, a non-profit organization whose mission is to end hunger and poverty, to mark an anniversary, blessing, or other event.

The Holy Communion

The Offertory: Draw Us in the Spirit's Tether

St. Paul's Choir

Harold Friedell (1905 - 1958)

Draw us in the Spirit's tether, for when humbly in Thy name,
Two or three are met together thou art in the midst of them;
Alleluia! Alleluia! Touch we now Thy garment's hem.

As the brethren used to gather in the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father break the bread and bless the cup, Alleluia! Alleluia! So knit Thou our friendship up.

All our meals and all our living make as sacraments of Thee,
That by caring, helping, giving we may true disciples be.
Alleluia! Alleluia! We will serve Thee faithfully.

Please stand as you are able while the offering is presented.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A

BCP 361

The People remain standing. The Celebrant faces them and says

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People

The Sanctus: Holy, Holy, Holy

The Hymnal 1982 #S130

Please stand or kneel as you are able.

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant then continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

The Celebrant then continues

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

BCP 364

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore, let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Fraction Anthem: Jesus, Lamb of God

The Hymnal 1982 #S164

The Presentation & Invitation

The Celebrant says

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All are welcome to come forward for Communion, including children. Please follow the ushers' guidance as you come to the rail. If you would like a gluten-free host, extend your hands palms down. If you would like to receive the wine by intinction (dipping the bread in the cup), keep the bread in your hands and wait for the communion server to come to you with a pottery chalice. If you would like to drink from the chalice directly, please consume the bread first and a communion server will offer you the silver chalice (common cup). If it is not your custom to receive communion, you are still welcome to come forward for a blessing. Simply cross your arms across your chest and a priest will offer a blessing or a deacon will offer a prayer. A person may be available to provide prayers for healing in the back southwest corner of the church. Simply head to the back during communion distribution and wait for your turn.

Music During Communion	"Let us break bread together on our knees"	The Hymnal 1982 #325 Let Us Break Bread

Please stand or kneel as you are able.

The Post-Communion Prayer

Enriching our Worship (EOW) 69

Celebrant and People

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Please stand as you are able.

GENERAL INFORMATION

New to St. Paul's? Welcome! Please let us know you are here by filling out a visitor card in the pew. Stop by our Connecting Station in the narthex (lobby) to chat and find materials that might help if you are new to St. Paul's or The Episcopal Church. Join a tour of our campus today after the 9 a.m. service to learn more and meet others. Contact Mary Kintz, our Community Connector, at mary.kintz@stpaulscary.org to find out more about us!

Kids in Worship at St. Paul's: Children are always welcome in our worship services without exception, but if parents should wish for a space where your kids have more room to move around during the service, you are welcome to make use of the Comfort Room (glassed-in room at the rear of the worship space from which you can still hear and see the service). Ask an usher if you need help finding it. Also, our Kids' Club (free nursery care) is available during the 9 a.m. service, and infants/toddlers through 36 months (3 years old) are welcome to attend.

Accessibility: St. Paul's strives to make our services and programs comfortable and accessible to all. Ushers and Greeters are available to help. Please let us know how we can work together to improve your experience here.

Name Badges: One of the best ways to show hospitality in a community this size is to wear nametags. Please help us bridge the "unknowing" by wearing yours! If you don't yet have a nametag, please complete an order form in the narthex (lobby) so we can get you one. Contact Joyce Loughlin at loughlin1@mindspring.com with questions.

HAPPENING TODAY – OCTOBER 18, 2026

Children's Chapel: Children 3 years old through 5th grade are invited to process to Children's Chapel during the 9 a.m. service and will return to their families during announcements.

Children's Sunday School - 5th grade and under: Classes are NOT meeting; see below about the pageant rehearsal. Even if you will be away and not participating in the pageant, you are welcome to join the fun in singing Christmas hymns and hearing the Christmas story at rehearsals. Contact Melanie Williams, melanie.moyer.williams@gmail.com, with questions.

Pageant Rehearsal: The first rehearsal for the Christmas Pageant is 10:15 a.m. in the church. It would be helpful to have at least one parent present per family, especially if your child has limited attention in a busy setting. Once rehearsal is over, join us at Glenaire for Reverse Trick or Treat (see below).

Youth Sunday School - 6th thru 12th grade: Classes are meeting from 10:15-11 a.m. in the youth wing, joining with adults for today's forum.

Newcomer Tour: Those new or newly returned to St. Paul's who wish to know more can join a tour of our campus this morning after the 9 a.m. service. No sign up is necessary; meet at the welcome area in the narthex (lobby).

Adult Forum: Our forum this week is once again taking place in the youth wing at 10:20 a.m., joining with our youth Sunday School program. Our deacon, the Rev. Erica Ridderman, PhD, continues the theme from her dissertation "When We Say God is Love."

Reverse Trick or Treat at Glenaire: Please join us following the Christmas Pageant rehearsal (approx. 11 a.m.) as we share and receive treats with the residents of Glenaire. Put on a costume and meet in the lobby at 6000 Glenview Garden Place, Cary.

Souls to the Polls: Gather in prayer in the church at 2 p.m. with other Cary ONE Wake congregations as we reflect on the call to vote faithfully. Join us as we walk/drive together to the early voting site in downtown Cary. Bring a friend and celebrate fellowship and solidarity with our neighbors, even if you will not be voting today!

Episcopal Youth Community (EYC) 6th thru 12th grade: Join us from 5-7 p.m. in the youth wing for food, fun and conversation as we prepare games and activities for our Halloween carnival Oct. 25. Invite your friends!

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Celebrating the Rev. Candy Snively: The Rev. Candy Snively, the voice of our Gospel and our vibrant, compassionate companion for more than two decades, is retiring from active ministry as a deacon at St. Paul's and you are invited to celebrate with her as we gather on Sunday, Nov. 8 for one main service at 10 a.m., followed by a reception in the parish hall. Find links for how you can contribute memories/tributes and gifts on the St. Paul's website, or ask any of the clergy and staff.

Gathered in Grace Stewardship Campaign: Share fellowship, conversation and connection as we celebrate the many places we come from—across countries, states, and communities—the spiritual journeys of our lives and the grace that brings us together as one community in Christ. This year's stewardship campaign has three components:

Gatherings in Grace: Join fellow parishioners for small gatherings, offered in several locations and on various dates Oct. 16 through Nov. 13. Details on dates and RSVP info can be found on flyers in the narthex and online.

Dotting the Map: On Sunday, Oct. 25, we invite everyone to mark where they're from on three maps: the world, the nation, and North Carolina.

Stewardship Sunday: On Nov. 15, we conclude our stewardship season officially, asking you to confirm your support for 2027 by returning your pledge on or before this date. We gather to celebrate the generosity that sustains the worship, formation, pastoral care, outreach, fellowship, work for justice, and daily ministry of St. Paul's.

Be sure to join one of our gatherings, and mark your calendar to be here to dot the map!

Children's Choir Pop-up Oct. 25: Rehearsals for children interested in singing the offertory with the St. Paul's Choir on Oct. 25 during the 9 a.m. service continue this week on Oct. 19 (4 p.m.) and Oct. 21 (7:15 p.m.). We will sing John Rutter's "Look at the World" with the St. Paul's Choir which features parts for young singers. The full list of rehearsals can be found on our website. Contact Rusty at rusty.mckinney@stpaulscary.org for more info or just come to rehearsals!

Supporting November Elections: Volunteers from St. Paul's Community Response Group, ONE Wake and the Racial Justice Planning Group will be on hand after Sunday services throughout October to provide basic information to support participation in the Nov. 3 election. Learn more about how you can respond to the call of The Episcopal Church to engage in elections as a means of Christian stewardship; resource links can be found on the St. Paul's website.

Call for Vestry Nominations: 2027 is going to be a very important year for St. Paul's! The vestry is the core elected lay leadership group of the parish, and those we elect in November will be part of the group that builds our vision with Fr. Jay as we move us forward together. The vestry meets monthly and gathers for an annual weekend retreat to accomplish the meaningful, necessary work that underpins all that happens at St. Paul's. All confirmed adult members in good standing are eligible to be nominated to serve on the vestry. Learn more about the work of the vestry by speaking with current vestry members (listed on our website). To nominate someone, or for any questions, please contact wardens@stpaulscary.org. The nomination period closes on Oct. 25.

Thanksgiving Food Drive for NeighborUp: The transitional kindergarten class of St. Paul's Preschool is helping NeighborUp collect food for their annual Thanksgiving Dinner Basket drive through Nov. 15. Support their efforts by dropping off goods in the narthex (lobby) in the labeled container. Needed items are listed on flyers in the narthex as well.

Clergy Clash Obstacle Course, our Final Event of Brighter Days Ahead: At 6 p.m. during the Halloween Carnival on Oct. 25, Fr. Jay and Deacon Erica will compete in a battle of skill, stamina, and will as they race through a thrilling (albeit safe) obstacle course on the playground. They need your support! You can give to either "Team Jay" or "Team Erica" to give them a time advantage – for every $100 given, they will gain a 1 second headstart. All funds raised will go to the "Brighter Days Ahead" campaign, which continues to brighten and enhance our St. Paul's spaces, particularly the Youth Wing. And of course, come cheer on our clergy on Oct. 25 as they compete for a good cause! Giving instructions are available in the narthex and on the parish website.

Halloween Carnival Featuring Carnival Games, Chili, Trunk or Treat: Celebrate Halloween with us Sunday, Oct. 25 from 5-7 p.m. on the church grounds. Activities will include youth-led carnival games and prizes, a Chili Cookoff in the parish hall (hotdogs and potluck, too), and Trunk or Treat! Everyone is welcome to participate. Ministries and groups of friends can decorate their car trunks and hand out candy, and anyone is welcome to enter the Chili contest! You can find the sign-up on the parish website.

St. Paul's Creation Care Ministry: The Creation Care Ministry at St. Paul's is being re-constituted! Help us define the new path of Environmental Stewardship, Eco-justice, and Creation Spirituality for our parish. Through our collective efforts of prayer, learning, action, and advocacy, this ministry will explore how we can honor and respect creation in all we do. Please join us to find out more at our next meeting, Oct. 28 at 7:30 p.m. on Zoom. Find a signup on the St. Paul's website, or contact Joe Rabenstine at joseph.rabenstine@gmail.com to be added to the meeting invitation.

Updating our Veterans List: St. Paul's has a custom of expressing gratitude for faithful military service by listing the names of veterans, living and in memoriam, in a special posting on the Sunday closest to Veterans Day. We are in the process of updating that list and invite you to include your veterans by emailing Natalie Sroka at natalie@stpaulscary.org by Nov 1. Please let her know the name and the branch of military service to be listed for any additions. If you were on the list last year, you do not need to notify us again.

Baptism at St. Paul's: Our next date for celebrating baptism at St. Paul's will be November 1. Please contact Natalie Sroka at natalie@stpaulscary.org if you need information about baptism for adults or children.

Chore Day Fundraiser for Appalachia Service Project: St. Paul's Youth have scheduled a fall service opportunity in the afternoon on Sunday, Nov. 8 (after celebrating Candy's retirement), to support the 2027 Appalachia Service Project mission trip. This will be a fall cleanup workday, where parishioners and neighbors hire a crew of youth and adults to do yard work and other suitable outdoor projects around their homes in exchange for a donation to St. Paul's ASP Ministry. Please contact Stephanie Hirschy at shirschy@yahoo.com if you would like to hire a crew (we estimate being able to support five households).

Spiritual Retreat for Seniors (65+): Join us on Saturday, Nov. 21, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the youth wing, for "Living Your Best Life: Exploring Life, Loss and Legacy," a retreat for seniors. Limited to 30 participants, the retreat will be led by parishioner Fr. Frank Hubbard, assisted by Nancy Fierke, Howard Loughlin, Joyce Loughlin, and Glenda Swann. The day includes a catered Mediterranean lunch (free will cash offerings accepted). To learn more and register, contact Fr. Frank Hubbard at therevfah50@hotmail.com. Transportation can be provided upon request.

In the prayers for the deceased, we pray for Nancy Bianco.

If you have a name you would like to include on the prayer list, or a ministry event that you would like to announce in this printed bulletin, please send information to announcements@stpaulscary.org. Names included in the prayer list will remain for a month, and we are happy to extend at your request. Please note that there is a 2-week lead time on printed announcements.
